PROTOCOLS FOR PUBLIC WORSHIP IN LIMERICK CITY PARISH

Whilst each church building has had to initiate its own unique plans, there are some general principles to which we must adhere.

- Physical distancing: This is the basic practice which underpins the others. Please make every effort to comply rigorously with prevailing government restrictions.
- Opening: At this stage it is the intention to open our church buildings every Sunday (where the availability of clergy/readers permit) for worship and close for the remainder of the week – this is being done to adhere to guidelines and advice around cleaning and infection control.
- Wearing masks: We need to adhere to government guidelines, which may change - but in the meantime, masks should be worn wherever possible. Please bring your own mask with you to church.
- Hand sanitisers will be available in the church porch - please use them. You might want to bring your own, and possibly also disposable tissues to take home.
- Gloves: Please bring your own if you feel they give you extra protection. The advice received is as follows: “We do not recommend gloves, as one must keep changing them, after touching new surfaces for them to be effective... soap and water is more effective than gloves and easier on the hands. We do recommend face masks.”
- Visitors: It may very well be that some new people will wish to come to church to give thanks for safety or recovery. Even though it won't be possible to welcome them as normal, please take the opportunity to make them feel welcome, but from a distance!
- Pews: In order to comply with distancing requirements, we need to fill up from the front pew first. That means you may be guided to a pew other than you would normally choose. Enjoy the different view! Family members may of course sit together.
- Children: The books/toys etc. at the back of church will NOT be available for the duration - perhaps you might bring crayons/(silent!) toys to keep young ones happy, and try to keep them in one place – we have been asked to minimise movement. Weekly resources will still be made available on-line.
- Hymn Books/Prayer Books: These will not be needed - there will be a 'take home' service sheet every week with readings and notices. Alternatively, you may download and print the service sheet at home and bring it to church with you, remembering to take it home again! Then again, you could bring your tablet or iPad for use during the service, reducing printing paper.
- Singing: We are advised that singing is potentially more likely to spread infection, so for the time being we may just listen to music. Sadly this also means that the choirs will not be returning for the present.

- Type of Service: To begin with all services will be Morning Prayer. This will be reviewed weekly.
- Going in/Coming out: These are the times when we may be at the most risk of getting too close to others - so please be careful to maintain distance, avoid congregating in groups outside and listen to the directions of stewards and observe carefully any signage. (Apart from statutory notices, there will be no church notices on the noticeboards as per the guidelines.)
- Churchwardens: The churchwarden(s) will greet people on entry to church, asking them about their general well-being and if they have been in contact with anyone displaying any symptoms in the previous 24 hours. People will be directed to the allocated seats, which are following the guidelines. Therefore you may not necessarily be sitting in your normal place! You will be directed out of church as well. As time progresses, we hope that the guidelines will be eased, but until then please bear with us and the churchwardens, while we adjust to the new protocols.
- Tea/Coffee: We will NOT be able to serve refreshments in church until further guidelines are issued from Church House.
- Contact Tracing: We have been asked to keep a record of attendees for possible tracing - these records will be disposed of after the recommended 14 days and will fully comply with GDPR legislation. Every church will have a designated person to record your attendance. (Don't worry the clergy will not be studying it!)
- If you show symptoms of Covid 19: e.g. a temperature or are feeling unwell, much as we'd love to see you, it is strongly recommended that you stay at home. We'll continue to stream services from the Cathedral for the foreseeable future
- Offertory Collections: Again, the churches have been instructed to have a retiring collection. However, this might be a good time to instigate a standing order if you haven't already done so.
- Toilets, etc: These will be out of action for the foreseeable future and only used in cases of extreme emergencies. (The first number of services will be no longer than 30/40 minutes duration.
- Anxious? This is an anxious and unsettling time for everybody. If you are concerned about your mental health, may I direct you to the following resource - <https://www2.hse.ie/wellbeing/mental-health/minding-your-mental-health-during-the-coronavirus-outbreak.html>

WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

The Lord be with you And also with you

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

PENITENCE

Hear what our Lord Jesus Christ says You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it. You shall love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets.

Lord, have mercy on us, and write these your laws in our hearts.

The Confession is introduced with appropriate words, such as:

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son Jesus Christ, to save us from our sins, to intercede for us in heaven, and to bring us to eternal life. Let us then confess our sins in penitence and faith, firmly resolved to keep God's commandments and to live in love and peace:

Silence

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned in thought and word and deed, and in what we have left undone. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may walk in newness of life to the glory of your name. Amen.

The celebrant pronounces the Absolution

Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy on you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE SERMON

Please sit

Please stand as the preacher leaves the pulpit

THE NICENE CREED

Please face the Altar

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Response to 'Lord in your mercy' is 'hear our prayer'

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

THE PRAYER OF HUMBLE ACCESS

We do not presume to come to this your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness but in your manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table. But you are the same Lord, whose nature is always to have mercy. Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him and he in us. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord is here. His Spirit is with us.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise. Father, almighty and everliving God, at all times and in all places it is right to give you thanks and praise: A proper preface may follow here

And so with all your people, with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing/saying:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed are you, Father, the creator and sustainer of all things; you made us in your own image, male and female you created us; even when we turned away from you, you never ceased to care for us, but in your love and mercy you freed us from the slavery of sin, giving your only begotten Son to become man and suffer death on the cross to redeem us; he made there the one complete and all-sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world: he instituted, and in his holy Gospel commanded us to continue, a perpetual memory of his precious death until he comes again: On the night that he was betrayed he took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me. In the same way, after supper he took the cup; and when he had given thanks to you, he gave it to them, saying, Drink this, all of you, for this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Therefore, Father, with this bread and this cup we do as Christ your Son commanded:

we remember his passion and death, we celebrate his resurrection and ascension, and we look for the coming of his kingdom.

Accept through him, our great high priest, this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; and as we eat and drink these holy gifts, grant by the power of the life-giving Spirit that we may be made one in your holy Church and partakers of the body and blood of your Son, that he may dwell in us and we in him: Through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, Almighty Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

The bread which we break is a sharing in the body of Christ: We being many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Jesus Christ is the Lamb of God, who has taken away the sins of the world. Happy are those who are called to his supper. Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

THIS WEEKS COLLECTS AND READINGS

The Collect

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions, make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Genesis 45: 1-15

Then Joseph could no longer control himself before all those who stood by him, and he cried out, 'Send everyone away from me.' So no one stayed with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard it, and the household of Pharaoh heard it. Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?' But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'Come closer to me.' And they came closer. He said, 'I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither ploughing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt. Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, "Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. I will provide for you there—since there are five more years of famine to come—so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty." And now your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my own mouth that speaks to you. You must tell my father how greatly I am honoured in Egypt, and all that you have seen. Hurry and bring my father down here.' Then he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck and wept, while Benjamin wept upon his neck. And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Psalm 133

Behold how good and pleasant it is ◆ to dwell together in unity.
It is like the precious oil upon the head, ◆ running down upon the beard,
Even on Aaron's beard, ◆ running down upon the collar of his clothing.
It is like the dew of Hermon ◆ running down upon the hills of Zion.
For there the Lord has promised his blessing: ◆ even life for evermore.

Romans 11: 1-2a, 29-32

I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin. God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may be merciful to all.

Matthew 15: 21-28

Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, 'Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon.' But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, 'Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us.' He answered, 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.' But she came and knelt before him, saying, 'Lord, help me.' He answered, 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs.' She said, 'Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table.' Then Jesus answered her, 'Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.' And her daughter was healed instantly.

Post Communion Prayer

O God, as we are strengthened by these holy mysteries, so may our lives be a continual offering, holy and acceptable in your sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thank you from the Rev'd Edna Wakely:

Dear Friends, I would like to thank you most sincerely for all the good wishes, cards, messages and gifts given to me on the occasion of my institution as rector of Castlecomer Union of Parishes, Co. Kilkenny.

I am gradually settling in to my newly refurbished rectory and finding it very comfortable. Once all the boxes are unpacked it will be even better!

I enjoyed getting to know you and I value all the experience I gained in Limerick, having pitched my tent there for six years. I take with me fond memories, particularly of the Saint Mary's Cathedral Choir, the Sunday School, The Evergreens, the annual services for Animal Blessings and the annual Quiet Reflective Christmas services.

An important highlight of my time in Limerick was preparing for and participating in the first ever General Synod which took place in Limerick in 2017. This was a wonderful experience and a great learning opportunity. Other highlights include the wonderful Evergreens' outings and Christmas dinner parties, all the many enjoyable concerts, especially in Saint Mary's Cathedral, not to mention all the people I met from across the world, through the Cathedral tourism initiative. I always found the ecumenical outreach very meaningful, heart-warming and encouraging. The wider community involvement, especially in Saint Mary's Cathedral, also made ministry more interesting.

It is my hope that all the rich experience afforded to me in LCP will greatly enrich my future ministry in the Castlecomer Union of Parishes. I wish you all God's richest blessings for the future of the parish, Edna.
