

United Dioceses of Tuam, Limerick and Killaloe

PRESS RELEASE

Bishop Michael Burrows' Good Friday Pilgrimage.

'From Killala to Kenmare' 18th April 2025

The Bishop of Tuam Limerick and Killaloe, Rt Revd Michael Burrows, will be traveling across the diocese on Good Friday pausing for a short reflection on Christ's journey to the Cross outside the following 15 churches.

0830. Killala. Jesus in agony in the Garden

0920. Ballina. Jesus handed over by Judas and arrested

1000. Foxford. Jesus condemned by the Sanhedrin

1055. Claremorris. Peter denies Jesus

1145. Tuam. Jesus judged by Pilate

1235. Ardrahan. Jesus scourged and crowned with thorns

1330. Ennis. Jesus carries the Cross

1450. Killaloe. Simon of Cyrene helps Jesus carry the Cross

1550. Limerick Cathedral. Jesus meets Jerusalem women

1655. Adare. Jesus is crucified

1735. Rathkeale. Jesus promises the kingdom to the thief

1905. Tralee. Jesus on the Cross his mother and his friend

1950. Kiltallagh. Jesus dies on the Cross

2040. Killarney. Jesus laid in the tomb

2150. Kenmare. Jesus risen from the dead

For Editors,

The Church of Ireland United Diocese of Tuam Limerick and Killaloe is a member of the Anglican Communion. The Diocese was configured in its present form in 2021. It covers over one third of the island of Ireland, with areas of the Midlands, the West and Southwest and in particular the stunning coastline of the Wild Atlantic Way over the long distance from South Kerry to the edge of Co Sligo.

Stephen Fletcher - Diocesan Communications Officer

Email: comms@tlk.ie Phone: 089 4489353

PR 25/01 for immediate release